MEMORIAL UNIVERSITY OF NEWFOUNDLAND

WHO WE ARE

- Memorial is the only university in Newfoundland and Labrador, Canada's most eastern province.
- Founded in 1925.
- We are the second largest university in Atlantic Canada.
- One of Canada's top five comprehensive universities according to Macleans magazine 2010.
- Memorial awards bachelor degrees, master degrees, and PhDs, as well as a wide range of certificates and diplomas.

WHERE WE ARE

- Memorial has three campuses on the island of Newfoundland: the St. John's campus; the Marine Institute, also located in St. John's; and the Grenfell Campus located in Corner Brook, on Newfoundland's west coast.
- The university has a fourth campus, Harlow campus, located in Essex, U.K.

QUICK FACTS

- 14,208 undergraduate students enrolled in Fall 2013
- 3,565 graduate students enrolled in Fall 2013
- Number of international students at Memorial: 1,872 (Fall 2013)
- Proportion of international students in student population: Approximately 10% in 2013 (25% of graduate students are international, while roughly 7% of undergraduates are international students)
- 16,808 meters of underground tunnels and overhead pedways connect most of our buildings

NEWFOUNDLAND AND LABRADOR

The population of Newfoundland and Labrador today is approximately 525,000 (2014). Although the majority of present-day Newfoundlanders have English and Irish roots, the province's diverse history ensures its people embrace the many cultures drawn to the province.

INTERNATIONAL OFFICES AT MEMORIAL

- The International Centre manages student mobility and collaborations with our partner universities. www.mun.ca/international
- The International Student Advising Office (ISA) supports international students on all concerns including documentation, health insurance, and accommodation. The ISA offers student programs including mentorship and peer assistance. www.mun.ca/isa
- The English as a Second Language unit provides English courses and a bridging program. ESL courses are also available at the Grenfell Campus. www.mun.ca/esl
- The Office of Student Recruitment completes a wide range of recruitment and outreach activities to Canadian and prospective international undergraduate students. www.mun.ca/undergrad
- The Faculty of Business Administration has its own International Programs Office. www.business.mun.ca/international

- The School of Graduate Studies administers all master and doctorate programs at Memorial and facilitates international research collaboration, joint programs, joint supervision, and short-term programs. www.mun.ca/sgs

GRENFELL CAMPUS

The Grenfell Campus is located in Corner Brook on Newfoundland's west coast. This campus offers undergraduate programming in arts, business, education, fine arts, nursing, resource management and science, and a master of arts in environmental policy. Grenfell is personal, interdisciplinary and full of adventure, and considered more of a home than an institution by 1,300 students. For more information, go to www.grenfell.mun.ca

MARINE INSTITUTE CAMPUS

The Marine Institute, our second campus in St. John's, is one of the largest and most comprehensive marine educational and applied research facilities in the world. For more information on admission and fees, visit www.mi.mun.ca

SCHOLARSHIPS

MEMORIAL UNIVERSITY offers international students many opportunities to receive scholarships and awards.

- International Entrance Scholarships: International Entrance Scholarships are non-renewable scholarships for a students' first year of study. (For program students, not exchange students.) Funding: $3,000 – $15,000
- International Undergraduate Conference Travel Funding: Available to international undergraduate students who are interested in attending a conference related to their studies or co-curricular activities (must take place within exchange semester dates).
- Global Engagement Grants: Are designed to promote an intercultural experience on campus. The funding is designed to help fund events, projects, training sessions or other appropriate ventures with an intercultural focus, whereby the entire student body stands to benefit.
- Graduate: Graduate students at Memorial University may be eligible for a number of internal and external scholarships. Some of these scholarships are administered through the School of Graduate Studies or another administrative unit at Memorial University, while others managed directly by the scholarship agency.
- Graduate Student Fellowships: This funding is intended to support master's and doctoral students while they devote full-time studies to their research. Funding: $3,000 – $15,000
- For more information on scholarships and available funding, visit our website: www.mun.ca/international/scholarships/
